

Critical Care Update Post Test – Critically Ill and Special Needs Children – Scot Tuttle, RN, CFRN

2 Hr Inservice -**Submit Post Test to your department educator or training officer

Name_____ Date_____

1. What is the priority of seizure treatment?
2. What is the number one cause of seizures in children?
3. What is the most common dysrhythmia in children?
4. What is the most common presenting complaint for children with cardiac dysrhythmias?
5. Why should pain medication be given in addition to sedation for cardioversion?
6. What is the drug of choice for bradycardia in children?
7. How do you determine what size of suction catheter is needed for the various sizes of ET tubes?
8. What is the number one cause of anaphylaxis?
9. What is the number one cause of shock in kids?
10. Explain the “Golden Hour” for kids with cancer?

11. How should a fever in a leukemic patient be treated?

12. Should you take a rectal temp on a pediatric cancer patient?

13. What is the vasopressor of choice in children who are not responsive to fluid boluses?

14. Describe Klippel-Feil Syndrome:

15. What is the baseline skin color in Tetralogy of Fallot?

16. What position will assist Tetralogy of Fallot patients?

17. What are the signs of an obstructed cerebrospinal shunt?