

Critical Care Update Post-Test:

Rhythm Interpretation Made Easy- Dr. Nathan Allison—2 hours CEU

Submit to your local educator or training officer.

Name _____ Date _____

1. What clinical signs indicate poor perfusion in a bradycardic patient?
2. What are the advantages of dopamine in the bradycardic patient?
3. What are the “rules” for determining if the patient has a prolonged QT?
4. What is the significance of a prolonged QT interval in prehospital care?
5. Describe the difference between 2nd Degree Type I and Type II heart blocks?
6. What is the concern of converting a-fib to sinus rhythm?

7. What rate is an accelerated idioventricular?

8. What is the treatment of stable V-Tach?